Dear Mr Ruby;

I am in line to let you know that I approve of what you did. Right or wrong.

Mr Oswald is in hell it is too good for him.

The President's death & funeral would have been unbearable, if

Oswald was alive
I saw him on TV
as he told a man he needed a shirt. And I thought to myself, that our President was dead and all he could think about was a clean shirt.

Good luck to you

Dear Mr. Ruby,

Like most of the American citizens I, too, have been watching with an unsuspecting eye, the events of this past week.
My heart, along with yours, grieves the terrible death of our late President John F. Kennedy. I can truly understand your sincere convictions to see the guilty person or persons punished for their destructive act.

But I am not writing to judge your act or to try to justify it.
My only concern is for your spiritual welfare.

I do not know what your religious background or affiliation is but that is not important. The only thing that really matters is that you are
"born again." Jesus said
"I am the way." As long as one has confessed his need for a saviour and has accepted Christ into his heart, his spiritual condition is as a child of God's and on here to all that God has. I trust you will read the verses underlined in the Testament enclosed and feel free to express your decision to me in a letter.

You might remember me? My name is Paul Hein, I am an entertainer who worked at the Cabaret Hotel awhile back. You invited me to your place - Remember. Well I didn't make it.

See, I don't know whether to shake your hand or be mad with you, but I do understand. I don't cry every day, but this past week-end has made me loose more tears than when my own mother died when I was 13 years old.

The Reason I'm writing to you is because I'm in the process of writing

whoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life this life is in His Son. If you accept Him into your hearts you shall be saved.

God did not come to the world to condemn it but that the world through Christ might be saved.

I accepted Christ

IS THERE A GOOD GOD?

If there is a good God, why does He permit such suffering and wickedness to go on?

This question is raised by many broken hearts; and God sees and knows and cares, only we don't understand God, or His written Word.

God is the good Spirit, only God is good, man cannot change the Spirit, God is love because God is love, is the answer for — Why does a good God permit such suffering and wickedness to go on?

Let us not go by our small minds, but let us see what God's Word has to say.

Second letter of Peter, the third chapter and 9th verse, The Lord is not slack concerning His promise (to come) as some men count slackness; but is — long suffering — to usward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

I understand according to the Bible truth, in I Thessalonians 4:14 to 18, that Christ Jesus is going to soon take up all His believers, He will come — in the air, we shall be caught up, etc., so, when Christ catches up all who believe in Him, the only ones who will be left here will be the ones who reject the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Saviour in this life.

So, now you can see, why God is long suffering, not willing that any should perish, He is letting His people suffer in this world till others be saved, and be ready to go up to meet Him in the air.

We hear many preachers say, "REPENT" I say, how can a man repent till he hears the Gospel, till he hears about the goodness of God? faith cometh by hearing, and hearing, by the Word of God — Romans 10:17, — Listen — Or despisest thou the riches of His (God's) goodness and forbearance, and long suffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance.

We were all born sinners — Romans 5:12, Christ died for our sins, was buried, and rose again — I Cor. 15:1, 2, 3, 4.

God so loved the world (us) that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. — St. John 3:16.

With the heart man believeth unto righteousness. — Romans 10:10.

Dear Mr. Ruby:

I am writing you for many reasons. First I want to thank you for doing something for me, something that I would gladly have done myself had I had the opportunity. I would never have been able to rest again until the slayer of our president was dead.

Second, you must realize that for many reasons, the official position of everyone—news media and public officials—must be that your act was wrong. Before the lid was clamped down on such reports, radio and TV were reporting that people were suggesting that you receive a medal. Few people can openly praise you for your act. You should not feel that everyone is against you. Many of us are very much with you. Too, you must realize that passionate cool and soon the people will have forgotten that when they heard the news of the killer's death they said, "I'm glad." You know it must have been a comfort to the Kennedy's to know that the slayer had already met his reward before the president was laid to rest.

I am sorry that the news media have felt it necessary to bring up your past. Personally your past is not material in this case. You were a patriot at this moment when you thought your country needed you. You acted. This is all that counts. That is all a country could ask.

Your act was legally wrong and God may judge it to be morally wrong. I have great faith in the fact that God is just and that he only expects us to do what we think is right. I am sure that you thought what you did was right. God will forgive. So, that leaves you to settle with man and his laws. I understand that you will plead temporary insanity. Surely this is a valid plea. We were all a little insane at this time of great sadness. I consider myself quite sane but given the opportunity you were given, I honestly believe I would have done the same as you did. Certainly if I did not act as you did, it would have been from lack of courage and not from lack of desire.

Because your feelings at this time of national tragedy so closely paralleled my own, I shall always feel a great brotherhood with you and I am sure many in this nation feel the same. If I can help financially or otherwise you have but to ask. I want to do something for you because I share your guilt if there is guilt as I shared your triumph if there was triumph.

May God bless you and keep you.

Sincerely Yours

Mr. Ruby,

I just read an article in the newspaper that of 300 letters you have received, only four were against you. Well, here is number five.

How could you have done such a thing? Sure, we would all like to get the man who killed our wonderful President Kennedy, but after all, we are supposed to be civilized people who believe in justice for all through the courts.

You have put a terrible blot on the people of the United States. You have given our enemies, and yes, even our friends in other countries of the world, a terrible picture of violence in the United States to use against us.

I really can't express myself too well but I did want you to know that I think you were very, very wrong in killing Oswald.

INCREDIBILE ATTENTATO A DALLAS LEE OSWALD E' STATO UCCISO

DALLAS, (Texas) 24 (Als-Alp) — Lee Harvey Oswald, l'uomo che la polizia ritiene abbia assassinato il presidente Kennedy, e le prove contro di lui sono molte e chiare, è stato gravemente ferito al ventre da un colpo di rivoltella sparatogli a bruciapeto.

L'attentato, è avvenuto in un corridoio del sotterraneo del commissariato centrale della Polizia di Dallas, mentre Oswald stava per essere trasferito, in una vettura blindata, nelle prigioni distrettuali.

Nel corridoio si trovavano una cinquantina di giornalisti di tutto il mondo che da due ore aspettavano l'arrivo del probabile assassino di Kennedy. La televisione era già entrata in funzione e filmava con i suoi riflettori la porta del commissariato dalla quale, alle 12.10 precise, Oswald, ammucchiato e sorvegliato strettamente, uscì per percorrere il corridoio e prendere posto nel bagagliaio della polizia. Mentre i giornalisti cercavano di avere una dichiarazione dell'accusato, un uomo in età, dai capelli grigi, con un cappello scuro e un completo marrone si lanciò con forza verso Oswald prendendogli un revolver sul ventre e facendo fuoco prima che le forze dell'ordine potessero intervenire. Dopo aver sparato l'attentatore si lasciò arrestare senza opporre resistenza.

Lee Harvey Oswald, gravemente ferito, è stato immediatamente trasportato all'ospedale Parkland, lo stesso dove il presidente Kennedy esalò l'ultimo respiro.

L'attentatore è Jack Ruby, proprietario di un night club, il « Carousel Club ». Egli era riuscito a immischiersi con i giornalisti visto che erano ammessi solo al proprietario del locale notturno.

L'incredibile attentato ha essere visto da milioni di spettatori che aspettavano di veder vedere il volto di quello ormai tutti consideravano colpevole dell'assassinio di Kennedy.

All'ospedale di Dallas Oswald è stato immediatamente trasportato nella sala operatoria, dove alle 20.06 è morto.

UNA SOLA ECCEZIONE: LA CINA COMUNISTA

HONG KONG, 24 nov. (ATS-AFP) — Un giornale di sinistra in lingua cinese, edito a Hong Kong, a proposito della morte di Kennedy ha scritto: « Due protesti hanno messo fine alla vita del Presidente Kennedy, ma non alla politica capitalista in Asia, in Africa e nell'America del sud ».

Secondo fonti generalmente bene informate, gli scolari di Pechino avrebbero salutato con un applauso la notizia della morte del Presidente degli Stati Uniti, descritto loro come l'uomo più cattivo del mondo.

Una stampa pubblicava il presidente Kennedy in un lago di sangue con un foro nella tempia e con la scritta « Kennedy morde la polvere », è l'unico commento trovato domenica sulla stampa cinese a proposito dell'assassinio del Presidente degli Stati Uniti.

Dear Jack Ruby, or lawyer

The first thing I want you to know is that I'm no crack. I am eighteen years old and very patriotic.

But the killing of Oswald was a very bad mistake for many reasons. This is suppose to be a court of justice, but Oswald didn't get any justice, and that's what Kennedy was working for justice.

I believe that if Kennedy were alive today he would say that Oswald should have had a fair trial and that Ruby should stand trial for murder just like any other man who committed murder.

Kennedy was a great man, and I had a lot of love and respect for him, but I believe Kennedy would have been the first to admit that he was just a man, and a man who takes the life of another man ~~should~~ have the right to a fair trial.

Our ancestors fought for our rights and died to keep them. Men like Kennedy struggled to keep those rights.

Men like Ruby, who think of revenge; don't realize what Kennedy was struggling to keep and what God has declared. — Romans 12:19

"Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I will repay, saith the Lord."

I believe that this is true, so whether Ruby gets off or not in the end God will take his revenge on Ruby, Oswald and all the other men who have unjustly taken other men's lives.

Sincerely,

Rita Hayes

P.S. I don't know if another man will ever be as great as Kennedy was, but to me, that still does not justify what Ruby did to Oswald, because Oswald would have received his justly reward for what he did.

In my mind Ruby wasn't being patriotic, he was just being stupid by thinking it would make matters better.

assassins assassinator;

I heard a news report
a few minutes ago saying that you had gotten many letters from people who actually condoned the criminal act you committed. Your lawyer stated that the letters received from people who did not approve of your act were "cranks".

I am writing to say I do not of your act of murder any more than I would of premeditated murder.
Maybe more people haven't written telling you this because they feel they would be belittling themselves

Jack, hold your head up and keep your spirits high, millions upon millions of Americans are solidly behind you, there on this God's earth are we ever going to find a President, who in his first three years in office with such a massive task ahead of him performed so brilliantly. If his life had not been snuffed out at such a young age, nobody could visualize to what great heights he would have ascended in behalf of all mankind.

He was great as President, but as a husband and father he was beyond compare. I'll never forget those happy occasions with Jacqueline, Caroline and little John John. Now - now - why the whole world wept so shamefully. He will be missed.

Jack, hold your head up and keep your spirits high, millions upon millions of Americans are solidly behind you, where on this God's earth are we ever going to find a President, who in his just three years in office with such a massive task ahead of him performed so brilliantly. If his life had not been snuffed out at such a young age, nobody could visualize to what great heights he would have ascended in behalf of all mankind.

He was great as President, but as a husband and father he was beyond compare. I'll never forget those happy occasions with Jacqueline, Caroline and little John John. Now I know why the whole world wept shamefully. He will be missed.

Having read in the papers how much you loved and admired another great President, Franklin Delano Roosevelt I am proud to say I had the same feelings.

These two great Americans, F.D.R. and J. F. K. will go down in history as two of the greatest, because at the time of their election they had to surmount severe obstacles.

Jack, I have written a poem about Franklin & Eleanor Roosevelt which I have entitled "ELEANOR AND FRANK" I want you to have it. When you are a free man again I'll write a poem for you about "JACQUELINE AND JOHN"
KEEP YOUR CHIN UP.

IN THE GRIP OF A DEPRESSION A COUNTRY IN DESPAIR
 IN 1932 THE NATION VOTED WITH HOPE AND A PRAYER
 A NEW PRESIDENT WAS ELECTED HIS NAME WAS FRANKLIN D.
 HE BROUGHT US BACK FROM DARKNESS AS YOU WERE SOON TO SEE
 THE SHIP OF STATE HAD RISEN FROM WHERE IT ALMOST SANK
 UNDER THE LEADERSHIP AND GUIDANCE OF ELEANOR AND FRANK
 THE YEARS AHEAD WITH ROOSEVELT WERE SOMETHING TO BEHOLD
 THE ECONOMY OF THE NATION WAS SOLID AS OF GOLD
 CAME THE DAY OF INFAMY WHICH HE HAD SPOKE ABOUT
 AND THEN OUR GALLANT FORCES PUT THE ENEMY TO ROUT
 THE PRESIDENT HAD PASSED ON BEFORE THE WAR WAS WON
 BUT IF HE HAD BEEN LIVING HE'D SAY A JOB WELL DONE
 IN THE HEARTS OF ALL MANKIND THEY WILL LIVE FOREVERMORE
 THE WORLD WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER FRANKLIN AND HIS ELEANOR

DURING THE DARK YEARS OF THE DEPRESSION I HAD THE PLEASURE OF MEETING THE FIRST LADY IN WASHINGTON. HAVING SPOKEN TO HER ON MANY OCCASIONS I WAS VERY IMPRESSED BY THIS WONDERFUL WOMAN. HER ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND TIRELESS DEEDS FOR THE BENEFIT OF ALL PEOPLES, IS WHY SHE EARNED THE TITLE [ FIRST LADY OF THE WORLD ]

RESPECTFULLY

Dear Jack;

I hope this letter finds you in the best of health although you are under a terrible ordeal. The thousands of people who live in this hotel have no doubt that the act you committed was done in a fit of rage, we also saw the smirking face of the bum who didn't show a bit of remorse after he gunned down the President, and the brave officer whom he shot down at close range as he was ready to question him.

I can just imagine how you felt, because millions of people all over the world had the same feeling when they saw our beloved President shot down so cold bloodedly by this bestial crackpot. I know that at the spur of the moment your emotions got the best of you and you were blind with rage.

Dear Jack,

This will most likely be a short letter. I have been up all night writing and working (it is now 4:45 a.m.) so I can't hardly bother to go to sleep, as I couldn't get enough now to do any good. So, since I have decided to stay up, and since I got your answer today, I will drop you a note, despite the fact there isn't much of anything to say.

You remember Joe Redula, all right. He said he had always just finished a cold beer when you would ask him if he'd like a sandwich. Joe was our cameraman. He left the Saturday before the rest of us. The Friday Deke tried to cut Bob out, Joe got fed up and left.

I was just kidding about writing because now you have time. I knew a few weeks ago that you were planning on writing. Bob told me just a few days after you had mentioned it to him.

I don't really know what you mean by "I realize that I'm no bargain" unless you were trying to say that because you killed a man you are nothing to be proud of, or are not worthy of respect, or some such thing. If this is what you meant, I don't really know how you figured it.

I don't know of anyone who is proud of you for shooting Oswald, true, but by the same token, I don't see how that makes you any less worthy of my friendship or respect of you as a person. While you did a grossly thoughtless, illegal, and nonunderstandable thing, one irrational act should never wipe out all the rest of a man's deeds, and we can all remember the multitude of kind, generous, unsolicited things you did for us - a bunch of hungry nobodies who could never hope to pay you for any of what you did for us. And you didn't do it just once, but time after time after time. So you will have to do a hell of a lot more than you did to make us feel other than as a friend toward you.

I'm going to send Joy my other letter, with a note inside, to the Club.

You threw me a second time in one letter by apologizing for your letter. First of all, I hate people who apologize for anything about themselves. And secondly, I had thought several times about what a pretty, clear penmanship you have. My writing is literally so bad you can hardly read it.

One last bit and I'll close for now. One of the FBI men asked Bob if it was true that you were running a whorehouse and an after-hours joint. I said, if he had asked me that, I would have had to tell him that, if you were, then you weren't a friend after all, because you didn't let us have any.

Sincerely,

Martin Gardner
